THE PLAIN TRUTH ABOUT THE COVENANTS

By Herbert W. Armstrong

One of the most important doctrines Jesus Christ has put in His Church is that of the "Old" and "New Covenants." Why should these be misunderstood? For that matter, why should the Sabbath truth, the annual Holy Days and festivals, tithing, healing or even salvation? Yet they are misunderstood.

God has made a number of covenants, among them the Mosaic covenant, the Abrahamic covenant, what we call the old covenant with the nation Israel, the separate Sabbath covenant of Exodus 31:12-18, the Davidic covenant, etc.

In fact it might be of passing interest to know that my last sermon if it could have been called that was a message to Church of God people near Jerusalem. One on a covenant that appeared to be new to them, the separate Sabbath covenant of Exodus 31:12-18. Whether worthy to be called a sermon or not, it was enthusiastically received with joy for those people loved the Sabbath and rejoiced in receiving new light concerning it.

However, I am concerned here only about the "Old Covenant and the New Covenant."

Covenant defined
Let me first define covenant. Webster defines the word as "a usually formal solemn and binding agreement, compact." In the biblical usage, a covenant is a contract or agreement, solemnly binding under which God promises certain rewards or blessings.

Shortly after most of you receive this issue of the tabloid Good News you will be receiving your first copy of the new Good News magazine (reborn after a two year absence). It will be filled with encouraging and timely articles as well as a number of new features to give all of you a rich diet of spiritual food. We hope it is as inspiring to you as it was to us during its preparation.

You will also be receiving The Worldwide News on a regular bi-weekly schedule beginning Jan. 2. We look forward to serving you through both publications and welcome your comments.

conditioned on man's promise of performance.

A grave mistake very often, carelessly made is to confuse the word covenant with testament. We speak of the New Testament and the Old Testament Scriptures.

A testament is not a covenant, and a covenant is not a testament. Yet common usage seems to confuse them. It is important, at the outset, to understand the difference.

The word testament is defined as an act or written instrument by which a person bequeaths or wills certain of his possessions to another. It may or may not be a conditioned will. It is not necessarily payment or reward for work or obligation performed.

The old covenant between God and the nation Israel was NOT a testament of will. It was an agreement by which the children of Israel covenanted with God to obey Him, and God promised material and national blessings and dominance. But He did NOT give... or promise to give... the Holy Spirit and eternal salvation.

Before proceeding further, let's get everything in its proper setting.

Adam had to choose

The first man, Adam, was required to make a choice. The super-angel Lucifer, having become Satan the devil, an immortal spirit being of tremendous supernatural power, was there when Adam and Eve were created. In order to qualify to receive God's Holy Spirit — symbolized by the tree of life and also to restore the government of God to earth, Adam had to make the choice of whether to reject Satan and Satan's attitude and way and choose to obey God and the government of God.

But Adam chose to reject God and believe Satan. He made the fateful decision — for himself and his posterity, which is the whole world. God drove out the man from the Garden of Eden and shut mankind off from access to the Holy Spirit — except such as God should specially call.

We need the above background to understand. Too often people start viewing biblical teaching in a manner comparable to tuning in a movie two-thirds of the way through. We need this background of what went before.

But God had called Noah and saved humanity alive through his family. God had called Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Israel), fathers of the promises. One of the promises to Abraham was multiple "seed" — nations, the promised land — material national greatness.

About hundred thirty years after Abraham God called the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to be a special people of God and to inherit the promised land. Other nations were still cut off from God. God had specially prepared and called Moses. Through Moses God made the proposition to the Israelites. He gave them their choice.

God's proposal to Israel

God proposed to the Israelites. Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians. Now, therefore, if ye will obey my voice, indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people. (Exodus 19:4-5)

There was a very large "if" in this covenant agreement. But the people gladly agreed. All that the Eternal hath spoken we will do... they promised.

So the covenant was ratified by blood (Exodus 24:4-8). It was also a marriage covenant by which Israel promised to obey her Husband. It made them a separate nation. Its basic law was the spiritual law — the Ten Commandments. He gave them His civil law of statutes and judgments to govern them as a nation. He also gave them, as a citizen of Congregation, the law of Moses — a sacrificial law as a substitute for the sacrifice of Christ to remind them of sin and a ceremonial law of physical works (Greek, ergon in New Testament), rituals and things to do morning, noon and night — a temporary substitute for the Holy Spirit.

But something was wrong with that covenant. Religionists generally seem to blame the wrong on God. What was wrong was the flagrant disobedience of the people.

New covenant prophesied

The prophet Jeremiah summed it up: "Behold the days come, saith the Eternal, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah. Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers... which my covenant, they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the Eternal, but this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days, saith the Eternal, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people" (Jeremiah 31:31-33).

This prophecy was inspired by one of God's holy prophets to become part of the FOUNDATION of the Church of God under the New Testament. And so in teaching the Church this was quoted in Hebrews 8:6-10.

Most Protestant churches teach that the fault with the old covenant was God's law, and that as the old covenant was made with Israel the new will be made with gentiles. Now, there fore, if ye will obey my voice, indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people. (Exodus 19:4-5)

The new covenant is made also with the house of Israel and the house of Judah (Hebrews 8:8). A Spirit begotten gentile becomes one of Israel spiritually of the household of God (Ephesians 2:19).

It will remedy the fault of the old covenant (disobedience of the people) and will be made with those in whose hearts is the spiritual law of God, as these scriptures say:

Old covenant a marriage contract

The old covenant was made with the carnal children of Israel and was a marriage contract in which Israel engaged in whose domain exceeded individual human nature.

The old covenant was made with a people on their promise to obey. They disobeyed. The new shall be made only with a Spirit born Church, a people who, in this mortal lifetime, through Christ and the Holy Spirit, have overcome Satan as Jesus did, and as the first Adam failed to do, have been begotten of the Holy Spirit, have already proven their obedience. The old covenant was made with sinning mortals. The new will be made with righteous immortals.

Now, where are we, today?

Both Israel and Judah violated their solemn agreement with God (actually who became Christ). As a wife they spiritually ran off. Finally God gave Israel a bill of divorce. Yet, even after that He enticed Israel to return to Him — but she wouldn't.

To make that Old Testament marriage finally end, Christ, her Husband, died so that she might be cleansed of her sins and become partly to the New Testament. In Romans 11 we read of how converted gentiles are like branches of a wild olive tree, broken off and grafted into the natural olive tree of Israel. But it shows how the natural branches broken off because of sin may also be grafted back into the Israel tree.

What are we under TODAY? THEN WHAT ARE WE UNDER TODAY?

The old covenant is ENTIRE. The apostle Paul said, "God Who abath made us able members of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirit for the letter killeth but the spirit giveth life" (II Corinthians 3:6).

Yet the new covenant HAS NOT YET BEEN MADE! Its terms and conditions have been revealed to us through Christ. We ministers preach it. And even though as a final MARRIAGE COVENANT it has not been made.

That is in contract language signed, sealed and delivered those whom God has called are privileged to have God's law written in our hearts, to have the life begotten, sin overcoming Holy Spirit to open our minds to spiritual understanding, to guide us in God's ways, and within us to empower us to overcome Satan and DO THE WORK OF GOD!

Some have misunderstood

How to watch world news

When Jesus Christ said, "Watch ye therefore and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things," Christ meant watch world events fulfilling prophecy. But how?

One way, of course, is to be there on the scene. For example, those who will be in Jerusalem when the abomination of desolation is set up (Matthew 24:15) will be able to witness prophetic events firsthand.

But seeing events firsthand in Bible prophecy with your own eyes is not practical for most of us. We must rely on secondary sources such as newspapers and magazines.

The all-important key to watching world news is knowing what to look for.

Most of today's newspapers are so filled with useless news, social happenings and trivia that significant events may be buried in an obscure corner, or as happens often with television news — often reported at all.

Two types of prophecies

There are two types of Bible prophecies. The first concerns ongoing social and worldwide conditions. These include the fulfillment of the last four seals of the book of Revelation (war, famine, death and pestilence) and the biblical prophecies that would be cast in our day. Such conditions include rampant immorality (Jeremiah 5:1-8), juvenile delinquency (Isaiah 3:1-2), economic troubles (Isaiah 3:2), Haggai 1:6), socialism (1 Peter 3:3-5), and crime (Ezekiel 7:23).

The second type of prophecy involves the specific movement of men and nations. There are at least seven such movements that we should be watching for:

1. The decline of the Israeli people. This includes the predicted retreat of British and American troops from the Sinai.
2. The rise of a united Europe.
3. The rise of a third personal try to lead the united Europe.
4. The rise of the false prophet.
5. The invasion of the Middle East by the forces of a united Europe.
6. The moving of the Vatican to Jerusalem and the involvement of the papacy in the region.
7. The reconquest for physical destruction of modern Israeli peoples. This entails, among other things, the military potential of any European union.

But knowing what to watch for is useless if we don't know which news sources are likely to report it.

Radio and television news can be useful in helping us to hear and see what is going on. But actual coverage of important news events is limited by time. Further, most television news reporting is often superficial and biased in favor of political liberalism. Television and radio give only a small fraction of the range of news that is covering the printed media. We simply cannot rely on television news to watch world events.

As far as publications are concerned, there are many different ways of evaluating them. For example, there is the reputable or quality press. This includes the New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, The Christian Science Monitor, The Washington Post, Time, U.S. News and Newsweek. These are trustworthy sources of news although they may exhibit some bias and have a totally secular perspective.

Specialized publications

Other news sources specialize in various topics. There are financial publications, such as Fortune or Business Week, which report important events in the state of the economy. There are publications that are devoted to various geographical regions, such as Asia, Africa, Canada or Japan. Examples are Asia Week (Asia), The Point (Africa), Maclean's (Canada) and Pacific Community (Japan). There are even specialized publications on the Middle East (Middle East Monitor) and the European Common Market (European Community). Most of these will be found in the periodicals section of a good library.

Some publications take a forthright political stand. This means that their interpretation of events is colored by their own, often narrow political outlook. Often, they do not report news but merely interpret it. However, they can be valuable for spotting some important events. For example, extreme leftist publications, such as The Nation or New Times (not to be confused with the magazine that appears on many American newspapers) — this one is put out by the government of the Soviet Union itself — do a good job of reporting the decline of the Israeli peoples and the moral decay in modern society.

Finally, there are foreign publications. The most reputable and useful for following prophetic events are the London Times, the London Daily Telegraph (an excellent source of news on Europe and Africa), the London Economist (one of the most complete news weeklies in the world), the Jerusalem Post, The Wall Street Journal and the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung.

No one secular news source is entirely satisfactory. For the subjects of most of us, a subscription to a big city daily is probably the best that we can do afford. We also should not neglect the World's News Bureau. Weekly events usually provide, night after night, whether it be the Bible or the news of modern Israel on the election of a new pope — per reported in our own publications.

As vital end-time prophetic events happen with increasing frequency, it becomes ever more important to watch world events

Grave peril for West if shah goes

PASADENA — The situation in Iran is becoming more critical by the day. Dec. 10, hundreds of thousands of Iranians surged through the streets of Tehran, the capital, in a mammoth anti-shah protest. The next day, a Shiite Muslim high day, more than a million turned out, many shouting "Death to the shah." Remarkably, the "referendum in the streets" ended without the bloodshed many feared would erupt.

The two-day Tehran outburst was the biggest street demonstration against Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi since his foes — both orthodox Muslim leaders and the left-wing political opposition — began the current campaign to oust him 11 months ago. A key political opposition leader, Karim Sanjabi, said it was "the best evidence that force cannot stop this national movement."

Dream shattered

As far as force goes, raw military power still rests with the shah and his fiercely loyal 430,000-man military. Yet, underneath what is increasingly a facade of power, the fabric of modern Iranian life is crumbling rapidly.

The shah has apparently abandoned his dream of turning Iran into a first-rate industrially developed nation and major military power by 1990. Orders for billions of dollars worth of sophisticated weapons from the United States and Europe have been canceled. As have plans for eight nuclear power plants.

Strikes have crippled Iran's economy. The treasury lost over $1 billion in oil revenue during the recent 15 day strike. The shah has given in to demands for more equal distribution of oil wealth. Some government workers have had their salaries doubled overnight, fueling the nation's inflation rate which in turn has harmed the peasants and lower class workers intensifying their frustration with the shah's government.

At the root of the strife is Muslim anger over the shah's drive to westernize Iran. To this he unwittingly played into the hands of the Muslim priesthood the ayatollahs (high priests) and the mullahs (rank and file priests). Writing in the London Telegraph, British Member of Parliament Julian Amery asserts that "the ayatollahs and mullahs are in a desperate mood. Unless they oust Pahlavi (the British press often uses the ancient name for the country) becoming a secular and Western-type society they authority and wealth will be undermined irreversibly."

The religious leaders have succeeded in transmitting their fears to a significant segment of the Iranian public, who up until this year had rather enjoyed the materialistic fruits of Iran's modernization.

All this has now come to a screeching halt. In Tehran 108 of the city's 115 theaters — symbols of Western "decadence" (and some were showing mildly pornographic films) — have been gazed by fire or smashed beyond repair. Restaurants have switched off their neon signs and stopped selling alcohol, banned under Koranic law. Out of fear more to the southwest and fight to the north. The other Persian Gulf states critical to Western oil supplies — Kuwait, Bahrain and Qatar — are even more vulnerable to communist pressure than Saudi Arabia.

Nearly all of the region's oil wealth passes down through the Persian Gulf, past the narrow Strait of Hormuz. The Iranian navy keeps this sea-lane open — and holds the Soviet fleet at bay.

Thus, an enormous stake for the free world rides on Iran and its Peacock throne. The Telegraph article quoted earlier emphasizes Iran's pivotal position: "Where Gulf oil is concerned, Persia is the key than anything else, women have started to wear the veil again in public — even though the shah showed often reveals blue jeans underneath.

What next?

The big question, of course, is what kind of government would Iran have if the shah is forced out. Would it be a constitutional monarchy with perhaps the shah stepping down in favor of Crown Prince Reza Pahlavi, now 17? Or would the political opposition, if it emerged victorious in a free election, demand the scrapping of the Peacock throne altogether?

Whether the Pahlavi dynasty goes or stays will have great impact on Middle Eastern and world affairs. According to the Associated Press, Dec. 11: "The Carter Administration has given full backing to the shah of Iran without explaining why his survival is so important to U.S. national security. The reason, one official said, is simple. Some of the alternatives to the shah are so bleak that public discussion of them could alarm the Arabs as a people."

The principal concern is that the entire Persian Gulf could be up for grabs if Iran, the most populous and militarily powerful country in the area falls into unfriendly hands. One possibility in the post-shah era is the emergence of a staunchly Muslim regime closely identified with radical Arab states such as Libya. Those states have made the shah's ouster part of their struggle against Israel, which now receives a substantial portion of its oil imports from Iran.

Chief Muslim opposition leader Ayatollah Khomeini was freed from exile in Paris Dec. 11 that when an Islamic government takes over it would never recognize Israel and would stop all sales to Israel and all countries that had supported the shah's regime.

Israel is heavily dependent upon Lebanon oil. The United States is committed to make up the difference to Israel. Would this source dry up? Western Europe and Japan are far more dependent upon Iranian oil than is the United States.

Another scenario has the shah abdicating with a military government taking over. Unable to control the social chaos, a pro-Soviet junta next assumes power similar to what recently occurred in neighboring Afghanistan. The Afghanistan example is particularly frightening with the announcement last week that the Afghan leaders signed a 20 year "peace and friendship" treaty with the Soviet Union.

The key to the Gulf

A leftist Iran would cause shudders throughout the Persian Gulf particularly in Saudi Arabia, which has always looked to Iran as a buffer against Moscow. The Saudis are at least encouraged by pro-Soviet regimes as it is — Ethiopia and South Yema

Since Britain withdrew from the area there is no other military power to ensure its stability. Neither Saudi Arabia nor the smaller Gulf states could begin to fill this role. If Persia changes sides only massive American military intervention could save the west.

The country called Iran has never been a nation. It is an empire, an empire made up of Persian speaking, Turkish speaking, Arab speaking, Kurdish speaking and Baluch speaking peoples. All except for the Persian speaking element have a close kinship with peoples across the border in the Soviet Union. Afghanistan and Iran have only been held together by allegiance to the Peacock throne. If the shah were overthrown the empire could well break up into its component parts, as well as become one of the Soviet republics in line to be partitioned between East and West.

The prospect of the Soviet Union having its own warm water ports and worst of all in Iran where the Red navy could bottle up the free world's prime energy sources — sending strategic planners back to the drawing board in many Western capitals, trying to figure out what to do if the very worst happens in the post-shah era.

Even a unified but neutralized Iran no longer desirous of selling its oil wealth in quantity to the West is no longer capable of acting as the "police man of the Gulf" would have a conspicuous part to play in this most geopolitically sensitive region of the world.

"GNT" articles appreciated

Thank you very much for your recent articles in the Good News. I always look forward to reading them and I must tell you how much I learn. It is so good to have good strong spiritual input to the pages of the Good News. I've not realized how much I appreciate it.

I read one article in the Good News on "How the Worldwide Church of God Came into Being." It has helped me to become more familiar with God's Church and how it is recorded in the book of Revelation. I hope there will be more articles on this subject as they are very helpful to me to learn about God's Work.

IS GOD'S CHURCH COMPOSED OF MANY SEPARATE 'GROUPS'?

By Herbert W. Armstrong
I HAVE HEARD many small religious groups, usually following one human leader, speak of "our Group," fully believing that their little unit or assemblage is A PART of the BODY OF CHRIST, THE CHURCH OF GOD.

Some have left God's Church saying, "I have not left Christ. I've only left that organization I worship Christ in my own way."

Are they really IN Christ?

Time is now short. We are in the very last days! Christ is coming soon — to MANY God's Church. In Revelation 19:7 the Church is called "His wife." This verse says, "Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready."

We are in sobering times the last days when "his wife" must be MADE READY for Christ's coming.

Will these "other" individual "Christians," or these many little isolated "groups" constitute part of the wife made ready?

In Matthew 25 it is written, "The bridesgrooms came, and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut." (Matthew 25:10)

The very eternal LIFE AND REST OF HEAVEN right now is "Just what is the wife that has made herself ready? Is it one united, organized, compacted,

There are many individual and separate 'Groups' differing in belief and organization, yet supposing they are a PART of the BODY OF CHRIST. Are they?

Spiritual organism — all speaking the same thing — all joined to the one Vine and bearing fruit — all in the organized Church built upon the FOUNDATION of the apostles and the prophets, with Jesus Christ the chief cornerstone, having grown into a BUILDING — a Holy TEMPLE, in the Lord, fully FRAMED TOGETHER and compacted in that which every joint supplieth? OR, will it be a conglomeration of disunited "groups" and denominations and a number of isolated individual "Christians," who have followed Christ in their own way?

Those who have gone off, either alone or in a small isolated group, will say, "We have not gone away from CHRIST — we have only left that organization. We no longer have a part in what it is doing, but we worship Christ in our own way."

They might refer to Mark 9:38-40. "And John answered him saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not with us, and we forbid him, because he followeth not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me: but he that is not against us is on our part."

Notice these people were performing miracles in Christ's name — by His authority — Jesus did not say they shall enter God's Kingdom. He merely said, "Let them alone." Now put this together with other scriptures on the same theme. Again Jesus said, "Let them alone," in Matthew 15:14. But He also said (verse 13), "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted out. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."

And again, Jesus said, "He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad." (Matthew 12:30)

Again, "He that is not with me is against me, and he that gathereth not with me scattereth" (Luke 11:23). Those not WITH CHRIST, WHERE HE LEADS in HIS CHURCH, are scattering and against Him.

But consider FURTHER

Body of Christ is united

Jesus Christ is going to marry GOD'S CHURCH — called THE BODY OF CHRIST. Now is that Body united, organized on a united and firm FOUNDATION, or an assortment of "loose" individuals and various "groups"?

I was awakened this morning, thinking on this sober question. Often it seems God puts things in my mind on first awakening in the morning.

This morning God was leading my mind in thinking about the BODY OF CHRIST, which is the one and only TRUE Church of God.

Why is the Church called "the Body of Christ"? God the Father sent Jesus into this world with a MESSAGE from GOD. That message concerned the now soon-coming KINGDOM OF GOD. Jesus taught it to His original apostles — He proclaimed it in the synagogues and in public. Jesus said, "I can of mine own self do nothing..." (John 5:30). But "...the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works" (John 14:10).

Jesus came to DO SOMETHING! Every one God has ever called since Adam has been called for a DUTY — to DO SOMETHING — and that something always has had to do with PREPARING FOR GOD'S KINGDOM.

Jesus taught the KINGDOM OF GOD. It was the Holy Spirit in Him that did "the works." After He had finished the work the Father had assigned Him, personally to do in His human life, He was crucified, resurrected and then ascended into heaven. Then He sent the SAME HOLY SPIRIT that had worked in Him, to work in His apostles and in His Church.

The Holy Spirit had WORKED in Jesus' body. Now it worked in the collective BODY of the Church. Therefore the Church now became the BODY of Christ — the BODY in which God's Spirit was "doing the work."

Christ organized Church

And Christ organized that Body — the begotten children of God, and therefore — the household of God — built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord" (Ephesians 2:19-21). This is the TEMPLE in which Christ is coming (Malachi 3:1). The Church is here called a TEMPLE — fitly framed together and compacted — closely knit TOGETHER.

The only PURPOSE of the Church is to carry out the WORK WHICH CHRIST STARTED! It is now the BODY in which the Holy Spirit is working. And God set in the Church to ORGANIZE it, apostles, prophets, pastors and teachers.

The Church is the BODY OF CHRIST. And Jesus pictured Himself as THE VINE, and we of His Church are the BRANCHES on that VINE. Notice it, study it. In John 15 Jesus is not several SEPARATED VINES. He is one VINE! The members of the BODY OF CHRIST are the BRANCHES, but not SEPARATED, isolated BRANCHES. ALL ARE JOINED TO

(See SEPARATE, page 8)

CHRIST IS THE LIVING HEAD OF ONLY ONE CHURCH—NOT TWO

By Herbert W. Armstrong
In an effort to mislead and draw away God's people and tithes, the misleading idea is now being circulated that this MAN (NOT Church) also preaches the Gospel. So, why not divide your tithes, sending half to the man and half to God's Church... or else send it alternately to each.

Satan is subtle, and he does deceive even the greatest of men. Let us honestly consider that crafty suggestion.

1) The tithes is GOD'S tithes, not yours, and is to be sent to GOD'S Church, where Christ alive and well, is actively working, directing and blessing.

2) God has only one Church, and that Church has a few hundred local congregations worldwide, all a PART — and an integral working part — of the one spiritual organism, the Worldwide Church of God, which is built upon the FOUNDATION of the apostles and prophets. Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. In whom all the BUILDING, with its many local congregations, fitly FRAMED TOGETHER, groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord. His whole body with its many local congregations worldwide, fitly KNINED TOGETHER AND COMPACTED by that which every joint supplieth according to the effectual working together of every part" (Ephesians 2:20-21, 4:16).

Jesus Christ does not HEAD, guide and work in any competing man or church. Christ is NOT invited! Christ's Body is led on earth, through Him by His chosen apostle whom He appointed and used in His time, His Church in our time. God's true Church is performing the FULFILLMENT of the Church — carrying Christ's Gospel message to all the world.

3) The man who mans half of God's tithes does not speak the same thing. On the one hand he attempts to draw your support saying, "I preach the Gospel too... so give me half the tithes." (The Baptists, Lutherans, Catholics, all profess to preach the Gospel) but it's not the same Gospel! Then on the other hand he contradicts himself, speaks out of the other side of his mouth, saying he does not agree with God's Church about Church tithes, about this and about that.

No brethren, he does NOT preach the same Gospel. He was attempting to water down God's true doctrine and oppose its doctrine and its apostle and to become the self appointed head of God's Church.

That's why he was DISFELLOWSHIPED from God's Church. He was NOT speaking the same thing. GOD'S CHURCH cannot speak with an UNCERTAIN SOUND!

4) This man is NOT a Church of God. A man can incorporate himself under man's law, using the name of a Church, and he came as close to the name "Worldwide Church of God" as possible, to deceive and mislead brethren into thinking he is the SAME Church. Any "Tom Dick or Harry" can incorporate himself with the signature of a couple other men as "directors" in the name of a church, but that DOES NOT make him a church! This effort to deceive by using a name so close to "Worldwide Church of God," is possibly subject to civil prosecution as an attempt to defraud and receive money under false pretenses.

(Of course, God's Church will rely on Christ for protection. However, since he intentionally incorporated under a name so close to "Worldwide Church of God" and it tends to confuse and harm God's Church, steps have been taken to prohibit his incorporating or operating under that name in any other states.)

5) This disfellowshipped man is not preaching any "gospel" into all the world for a witness unto all nations. His preaching is aimed only at you in God's Church, to draw you away from the Church headed by Jesus Christ. He does not preach any gospel to the world to teach those who know not Christ's Gospel. He seeks only to unsettle you who have already accepted Christ's true Gospel. His whole effort is a resentful and bitter one to GET, not to GIVE.

The member wrote, stating clearly which is God's Church! It is:

1) Where God's TRUTH is. Not with one disfellowshipped lot trying to water down that TRUTH.

2) Where God's true WORK is going out to the WHOLE WORLD.

3) Where Christ's chosen apostle is.

God's tithes is to be PAID to GOD'S Church, where CHRIST is working. Jesus Christ does not work in two "churches," one competing against and trying to draw members from the other. Christ is NOT invited! God does not have two churches — only the ONE Church that Jesus Christ founded in A.D. 31 and raised up to carry on in our time through His own chosen apostle.

SEVEN PROOFS OF THE TRUE CHURCH

The first six proofs of the true Church appeared in The Good News, Nov. 20 and Dec. 4. This installment concludes with Proof No. 7. By Herbert W. Armstrong

PROOF NO. 7 THE REIGN OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

HOW INCONGRUOUS! The churches calling themselves "Christian" do not know that the true Gospel is the GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD. They know nothing of what the earth will be like under the rule of the KINGDOM OF GOD! They know nothing of the only GOOD NEWS in today's world — of the world's ONLY and SURE HOPE!

Don't laugh at the word UTOPIA! It is regarded in today's troubled world as an impractical, impossible word. Webster's dictionary defines it "an imaginary and indefinitely remote place, a place of ideal perfection, especially in laws, government and social conditions, an impractical scheme for social improvement."

Jesus Christ was no impractical dreamer. His Gospel was the GOOD NEWS that a coming UTOPIA is REAL — it is SURE!

Stop and think! Why should it be impossible to have ideal perfection — in laws, government and social conditions? Why?

"Human nature, you answer? Yes, but as shown earlier, human nature was not created in us by God — was not born in us. It has been injected into humans by the prince of the power of the air — Satan, who is so powerful that he surcharges the air with his morbid attitude of gloom, repentance, rebellion, selfishness, vanity, spite. Satan broadcasts in self-centered attitudes and the "human" spirit in every human is tuned in on his wavelength! Thus Satan is now actually working IN the people of this disobedience (Ephesians 2:2).

But when the glorified Christ comes in supreme power and glory to rule all nations, Satan will be totally restrained from humanity. All will be called to salvation and eternal life — and, as God's people now are, will become partakers of the DIVINE NATURE" (II Peter 1:4).

"Human nature" will be OBEY! The earth will be as full of the knowledge of the Eternal as the ocean beds are full of water (Isaiah 11:9).

Science's postulate of the FUTURE

World famous scientists foresee three possibilities for the future

1) Some optimists think we

WHERE is the one and only true Church today — the Church founded by Jesus Christ in A.D. 31? Seven major eye-opening proofs identify it unmistakably.

shall soon have the magic push-button century 21 — with such an array of gadgetry produced by technology that human labor will be all but eliminated, and the world shall be entranced and dazzled by material technology. But, of course, this would not rid us of human nature. Crime would escalate, family life would break down completely, morals would sink even lower — if possible!

2) We shall have more and more evils, and, with nuclear power and other means of mass destruction, humanity will soon be erased from the earth.

3) Some say the world's only hope, now, to escape cosmic disaster is to form one gigantic world government, controlling the only military power and weaponry — yet in the same breath they admit the impossibility of it, who would sit on the throne ruling the world? The United States and Europe would never accept a Communist in supreme command. The Communists would never accept an American or Western European.

WHY? — yes, why should we have a world where more than half of all its people live in illiteracy, abject poverty, filth and squalor, racked with diseases and pains and without hope? WHY? — when the human mind can produce the marvels of technology, the computer, send men to the moon and back, transmit photographs from the surface of Mars to the earth?

Can't we realize there has to be a cause for all these evils, and that the GREAT MAJESTIC GOD has power to eradicate the causes and usher in a real Utopia? Don't tell God short!

The two alternatives

Let's face it! Right now there are two alternatives. Either there does exist the living almighty GOD of supreme mind and power, who will very soon intervene and save HUMANITY FROM ITSELF, or else HUMAN EXTINCTION is now imminent!

There is no other alternative! But thank God, there is the GOOD NEWS of the soon-coming PEACEFUL HAPPY WORLD TOMORROW!

When the supreme Creator RULER comes again to earth, already crowned as KING of kings in supreme power and glory and all the holy angels with Him, the people nations actually will fight to resist Him!

But... their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet. And their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth" (Zechariah 14:12).

The living Christ is coming to rule with divine power! And one of His first acts will be to depose Satan! The cause of the world's evils will be removed!

Jesus, after His resurrection, ascended to heaven, in clouds taking Him up out of sight. He shall return in clouds.

The mighty Lord shall descend with a shout! — with the voice of the archangel and the trumpet of God. The dead in Christ shall rise in a glorious resurrection to SPIRIT IMMORTALITY! The living in Christ shall then be caught up in the air with them, changed to spirit immortality — to meet the descending Lord in the air (I Thessalonians 4:16-17).

Christ's feet shall stand that same day on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem (Zechariah 14:4). The immortal saints shall be continually with the Lord — reigning with and under Him from Jerusalem over all nations!

With Satan gone the KINGDOM OF GOD shall be set up in power. Everyone whom God has called out of this world of Satan's has been called to a special mission preparing for this Kingdom!

The GOVERNMENT OF GOD will be restored worldwide! The humans left on earth will be ruled over. No mortal humans will rule — only those who PREPARED and QUALIFIED to rule during their earthly life after receiving God's Spirit.

The government organization

God has not revealed in specific detail how His government will be organized. He does reveal that it shall be government from the top down. CHRIST SHALL BE KING of kings over all nations. It is specifically revealed that King David of ancient Judah resurrected, shall be king over the nations, descended from the 12 tribes of ancient Israel (Ezekiel 34:23, 27-24-25, Jeremiah 30:9). Jesus Himself revealed that the 12 original apostles shall sit on 12 thrones, each ruling one of these nations (Matthew 19:28, Luke 22:30).

As a theocracy, with government from the top down, it also is revealed that the Father is the supreme lawgiver, and head over Christ and therefore ABOVE ALL. The Kingdom of God is the FAMILY OF GOD — and the Father is supreme head over His family!

Jesus Christ is coming as KING of kings and LORD of lords, so the Kingdom of God shall combine Church and state, as did ancient Israel — with Christ earthly King and Lord.

NOTE WELL THIS PRINCIPLE. In a world, or off from God, God has called out of the world those predestinated. And in every instance the call has been to a definite duty, and also in every case that duty has been one preparing for the KINGDOM OF GOD.

God called Abraham. All the promises of our eternal salvation were given to Abraham, and we inherit them from the fact Abraham is the "father of the faithful." This reveals that Abraham will have higher position in the Kingdom than David. He will be NEXT UNDER CHRIST.

Then again, the Scriptures use the phrase "Abraham, Isaac and Jacob," grouping them together as a team. All the promises were repromised also to Isaac and to Jacob. This indicates they shall be a headquarters team — next under Christ — over both Church and state, with Abraham chairman of the team. In Luke 13:28, Jesus said definitely the Abraham, Isaac and Jacob shall be in that glorified Kingdom.

One government over all

When the KINGDOM — the divine FAMILY OF GOD — reigns on earth, it shall be the ONE GOVERNMENT OVER ALL NATIONS. There shall be one God, one government, ONE religion.

In the transfiguration vision, Peter, James and John saw Christ transformed into the GLORIFIED Christ, His face shining as the sun (Matthew 17:1-7), and with Him in the Kingdom Moses and Elijah. These two, in the vision, represented the offices of Church and state.

Both Moses and Elijah, in their human lifetime, qualified for chief positions in Church and state respectively, next under Abraham, Isaac and Jacob — Moses over all national governments — Elijah over Church. It was Elijah who restored knowledge of the worship of the true God.

All these men, who were called to special missions by God during their physical human life, were prepared and qualified for these positions in the KINGDOM.

Actually, the preaching of the Gospel and spread of religion in the KINGDOM, will be primarily religious reeducation — since ALL shall be called, and the decision will be made individually by each person. It is significant that Elijah had founded THREE COLLEGES (II Kings 2:3, 5; 4:38) at Bethel, Jericho and Gilgal, teaching God's TRUTH in a world corrupted by false paganized education.

For further details of the organization in the KINGDOM OF GOD, see our book, Tomorrow... What It Will Be Like. This will be available in bookstores, beginning spring, 1979.

When ALL shall be called

The one original true Church of God is UNOBTAINABLE in the knowledge that THIS WORLD HAS BEEN CUT OFF FROM GOD — its inhabitants who were un-called are therefore NOT ADMITTED — YET! They have been neither "saved" nor "lost" — BUT THEY HAVE BEEN RECEIVED!

As Jesus said, many would go out claiming to represent Him, proclaiming that Jesus was the CHRIST (Messiah) — YET DECEIVING THE MANY" (Matthew 24:4-5, II Corinthians 11:13-15).

Millions have been deceived into a false salvation. What about all these sincere people, age they "lost"? Of course not. But neither did they receive the "salvation" they were deceived into expecting. They simply were not — YET — judged. THEY SHALL BE — all who have died — in the resurrection of the Great White Throne Judgment (Revelation 20:11-13).

Salvation shall surely come to all who — once the TRUTH is revealed, and they are undeceived — are as willing as they thought they were into false salvation they were deceived into accepting! This will include many whom our readers may have supposed were "lost"! It is a glorious hope!

Now notice Matthew 25:31 on

"When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit on the throne of his glory." Combine that with other scriptures already covered. When Jesus comes in His glory, He will come as He went to heaven — in clouds. The dead shall rise in a resurrection. First then the living in Christ shall be instantly changed to spirit immortality and be caught up in the air with them to meet the descending Lord. His feet shall stand that same day on the Mount of Olives. The resurrected and changed saints shall be continually from then with Him. Then the dead shall sit on the throne of His glory — in the City of David, Jerusalem.

All the holy angels will be with Him. In Revelation 12 we find that a third of the angels followed Lucifer into rebellion. But what about all these holy angels — the other two thirds? I have said nothing original was not COMPLETE until by their own decision CHARACTER — either righteous or evil — had been formed in them. What about this two thirds of angels, here called "not"? God does not reveal how their character and therefore their creation, was completed. But, in some manner not revealed, it is apparent the two thirds had formed holy and righteous character, for here they are called "holy" angels, and in many parts of both Old and New Testaments they are (see SEVEN PROOFS, page 5).

described as definitely holy and in God's service

All nations gathered

Now continue, Matthew 25:32. "And before him [Christ] shall be gathered all nations. This can refer only to the people in all nations still remaining alive at that time — all mortals, human, flesh and blood people.

Remember, many who had been called and truly converted will then be sitting with Christ in His throne at Jerusalem. Continued ... and he shall separate them one from another ... remember the dead and living [in Christ had already been separated and risen to meet Christ in the air. This separation refers to the still-living MORTALS — who had not previously been called — who had, up to now, been cut off from God and from salvation. But now, with Christ on the throne and Satan gone, ALL are spiritually called! Now continue still verse 32 ... as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then [verse 34] shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world ...

All then still living will be called. Those who decide for God's Kingdom — with Satan then out of the way — will INHERIT the Kingdom of God — BE BORN INTO IT!

Then [verse 41] shall he say also unto them on his left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels [demons]! That fire has been described above — the face of the earth becoming a molten inferno — burning up the mortal incorrigible. However, this fire will not take place until the end of the millennium.

Verse 46: "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment but the righteous into life eternal." That "everlasting punishment" has been construed by the deceived to mean "everlasting punishing" — but it is PUNISHMENT — and the wages of sin is DEATH (Romans 6:23). True, some few scriptures speak of the fire NOT BEING QUENCHED — and the deceived misconstrue this to mean an eternally burning hell. Often I have illustrated this before audiences by placing a small piece of paper in a metal pan and lighting it. I say to the audience: "Now watch! This fire shall not be quenched!" Then I put the remaining ash on the floor, step on it and quote Malachi 4:3: "... they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet ..."

WHAT A FABULOUS POTENTIAL lies ahead of all humans willing to BELIEVE when called!

WHAT WONDERFUL TRUTH! God has revealed to His one and only true original Church, small and persecuted, yet VIGOROUSLY ALIVE WITH GOD'S WONDERFUL TRUTH!

THE WORLDWIDE CHURCH OF GOD TODAY

We have covered seven major proofs to identify the one and only true Church founded A.D. 31 by Jesus Christ. We come now to the true story of that Church TODAY — the only voice in the wilderness of today's religious Babylon giving a hopeless world its ONLY and SURE HOPE!

THE VISITOR, to put it mildly, was astonished! He was witnessing something he had never hoped to see.

He was professor of Comparative Religions at one of the world's great universities, visiting a Canadian Festival site of the world's largest annual Church convocation. This, however, was one of the smaller of scores of such convention sites encompassing the earth. Seven thousand were here assembled for the eight day Festival.

At once the visitor was impressed by an atmosphere refreshingly different. And he had visited many church conventions in many countries.

Had these people been odd or fanatical it would have been no new experience. He was well aware of religious groups who generated a temporary emotional fervor in meetings. He was familiar too with those that were stiffly formal and unhappy. But here he was experiencing something unique to his knowledge.

The professor happened to be sitting next to one of the ministers of the Worldwide Church of God.

These members, he volunteered, obviously are stable and solid people and they seem to radiate an inner happiness that is genuine. Life to them seems to have purpose and meaning. It is an enjoyable and healthy experience. I can't quite find words to describe it.

"Yes," smiled the minister. Life does have meaning to our people. And they do radiate the inner joy you have observed, because their lives have been changed by God's Holy Spirit, and they are participating in and prayerfully backing the spreading worldwide of Christ's true Gospel message — the same message originally proclaimed by Christ Himself.

"But," continued the minister, "we now are living in the very generation that shall see that message fulfilled. It is God's time for that message of world hope to be again proclaimed to every worldwide. When one knows he is having a part in giving a dying world its ONLY HOPE, it is, indeed, a gratifying experience. We don't preach a gospel of DOOM — but of joyous HOPE — coming in our generation!"

The story of a unique convocation

The true story of today's Worldwide Church of God is the story of the appearance on earth of the real Jesus Christ more than 1900 years ago. It's the story of His message from God to mankind. And it's the story of God's rejuvenating His people with His Spirit and vitality to carry that message of SURE HOPE to this world's last generation.

It is axiomatic that for every effect there has to be a cause.

There has to be a CAUSE for all the evils in the world today: the widespread immorality, the result of youth, the trend toward drugs, the broken homes and rising divorce rate, the escalating crime, the almost general unrest, the rioting, violence, war.

By the same token, there has to be a CAUSE for the condition of peace, harmony and general radiant happiness the visiting professor experienced.

Isn't it pertinent to ask why science and technology seem unable to point the way to such a desired state for all human society? To ask why education does not teach the way to a better life — why religion has failed so dismally to make this a better world — why governments committed to uncovering the lot of their peoples have never found the way to peace?

There has to be a cause! There is a cause. There is something refreshingly different. And it shines forth from multiple thousands of homes scattered around the world.

WHY unique

These people are members of the Church of God known in our day as the Worldwide Church of God. This Church is unique in practicing Christianity as a way of LIFE as well as a faith — even as it did originally in the days of the first-century apostles.

Its members are motivated with purpose inspired by knowing the transcendent human potential. They know the true values. They have found THE WAY that makes life truly meaningful, rewarding, abundant!

It is the way the whole world ought to be living. And what is that way of life?

It is the way of LOVE — the wholesome way of outgoing concern for the good and welfare of others equal to self-concern. It is the way of cooperating, serving, helping, sharing — of companionship and patience.

More important, it is the way of humility and of obedience in reliance on and worship solely toward God. It is the GOD-centered way.

The other road travels the steep, centered way of vanity, selfishness, greed, lust, unconcern for others, competition, envy, jealousy, strife, resentment against authority, bitter news even hatred. It seeks self-advantage in every deal.

The Church of God has been blessed from the days of Christ's original apostles, that the Christian religion is that of Christ of His teachings, and of the example He set. Jesus taught this giving way. He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Also He said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God." The Bible is the Word of God in writing. Its entire teachings are based on this God-centered way of life — the spiritual law.

The Church of God knew, in the days of the first-century apostles — as it knows today — that the God-centered way of LOVE is an inescapable spiritual law in active motion. It is a law as real — as inflexibly relentless even though as invisible — as the laws of gravity and inertia. It is a law that governs all relationships between man and man and between man and God.

This law of LOVE is summarized scripturally by the Ten Commandments. It may be divided into the two "Great Laws" — love to God and love toward man. It was set in living motion by our Maker as the cause of all GOOD. Its transgression is the CAUSE of all evils!

This God-centered way of life — the way of outgoing concern — inspired and empowered by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit of God — is the cause of the fresh, sparkling happiness the visiting professor sensed at the Church convention in Canada.

It does not produce a temporary and artificial exhilaration of pseudo-spiritual jag, but a permanent inner peace and a faith that is a unique confidence and stability, which reassures when there are trials and even persecutions. This is a surely needed but sadly scarce commodity in this confused world today. This way of LIFE is paying off among Church of God people in joyous happiness, successful living and abundant well-being!

This GOD-centered way

broodens and expands one's horizons. Self-centeredness constantly shrinks one's mental and spiritual outlook inwardly.

It is, to man today, astonishing to learn that Jesus, Peter, Paul and all the first-century apostles taught obedience to this inescapable spiritual law — the WAY OF LOVE. It is surprising to most to learn that the Bible plainly shows that the religion of Christ is a WAY OF LIFE as well as a living FAITH.

This spiritual law was set in living motion as the loving gift of humanity's Maker to CAUSE every desired GOOD.

Pivotal Church history

Jesus Christ was sent into this world as a messenger bearing the most vital and important message ever sent from God to mankind. This was foretold by the prophet Malachi. His message was the greatest news ANNOUNCEMENT ever to fall on human ears. It should have rocked this world and shaken it to its foundations. The word Gospel means good NEWS. It was news of an earthshaking future event.

Jesus' Gospel — the message He brought to humanity from God — was the good news of the Kingdom of God — the soon-coming world government of the almighty God to rule all nations and bring us peace at last! Also, His stupendous announcement included the fact that humans, on repentance and faith, could become actual begotten children of God, could be BORN AGAIN — born of God, entering that Kingdom when set up.

That message was LIGHT shining in a dark world. But it is recalled: "And this is the condemnation that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil" (John 1:9).

Jesus Christ was sent into this world, the Son of God, born of the virgin Mary in the likeness of human flesh, to start this work on earth.

Church empowered by Spirit of God

He came with the tremendous announcement of the Kingdom of God. He came also to conquer the god of this world, Satan the devil, and thus qualify to become the King of the world-ruling Kingdom of God. He came also, in the human flesh for the suffering of death — to pay by His shed blood the penalty of human sin — for all have sinned — thus reconciling repentant believers to God and making possible the gift of eternal life through His resurrection.

Jesus said that, of Himself, He could accomplish nothing — it was the power of God — the Holy Spirit of God within Him — that accomplished the work.

Before His ascension into heaven after His resurrection from the dead, Jesus commanded His disciples whom He had trained and taught this message, to remain in Jerusalem until this same Holy Spirit of God entered within them, to empower them. The Spirit of God, dwelling in the human body of Jesus, had started the Work of God. After Christ's ascension to heaven, this same Spirit of God energized the collective body — the Church. The Church thus became the "Body of Christ."

Under those apostles, the Church of God, during the next several years, was imbued with vitality and power. Its initial growth was phenomenal. Then, after two years, "There was a great persecution against the Church which was at Jerusalem, and they were all scattered abroad."

Work had ended

Before A.D. 70 the real Work of God of proclaiming the good news of the coming worldwide Kingdom of God had lost its momentum due to the Roman military invasion and Roman persecution. That worldwide Work of God continued to ebb through the centuries to scarcely a trickle.

The Roman Empire, in cooperation with the Babylonian mystery religion (Revelation 17:5) had suppressed the true Gospel. The true Church suffered great persecution and martyrdom. It had been forced to continue assembling secretly, in the local congregations were small, in most cases not more than 35 to 50. There was at that time a limited evangelistic effort, though mostly ineffective. But now God's time had come for His last warning message to go to the whole world.

The great commission becomes a far more complex and sizable operation today than it was in the first century. The world's population has multiplied many times over. We live in a different, far more mechanical and complex world today.

In 1930 the Oregon members, in order to realize the Work of God, incorporated under the name, "Oregon Conference of the Church of God."

New leadership drafted

Meanwhile, the conversion of Herbert W. Armstrong had occurred in the spring of 1927.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, wondering "Where is God's, one true Church?" had been meeting with these brethren in Oregon — but not joining as members.

Having been a magazine and newspaper writer, Mr. Armstrong had, from the spring of 1927, been writing in article form much he had been so enthusiastically learning from the Bible.

Mrs. Armstrong had shown some of these manuscripts to ladies of the Church of God. They had been impressed. Many of them (manuscripts) appeared on the front page of the Church's weekly paper, The Bible Advocate, published at their national headquarters, Stanberry, Mo.

Oregon members began urging Mr. Armstrong to speak before them. He had refused, saying he had found revealed in the Bible that the ministry is a profession; no man is free to choose — he must be clearly called to it by the living Christ.

However, discovering what he knew would be "new light" on the Sabbath question to these people, Mr. Armstrong, at last, had felt impelled to speak, revealing it to them.

But almost half of the members were very vocal followers of A. N. Dugger and the Stanberry church. The dispute over Stanberry politics entering the Church and Mr. Dugger's fitness for office, was heating up toward a fistfight.

Mr. Armstrong leaped to his feet, saying, "Brethren, I'm only an invited guest — but may I say a few words? You all know, as recorded in the first chapter of Job, that when the sons of God came together, Satan came also. You know also that in the 12th chapter of Revelation it is revealed that the people Satan is most angry with are those who keep the commandments of God. SATAN IS HERE! I am going to drop to my knees right here and ask God to restrain Satan and give us PEACE. It's up to you whether to go on fighting or kneel with me as I pray."

On arising, there were wet eyes, but no angry voices. These people were sincere. They had just allowed emotions to rise. The state conference was agreed to and immediately incorporated as a separate body.

This Oregon Conference was anxious to "get things moving" in proclaiming the Gospel. The Stanberry ministers had done almost nothing, and effectiveness had been nil.

Now they urged Herbert Armstrong to come into the ministry full time and lead them in "getting things moving." Realizing Mr. Armstrong had the background, the business experience, the education, vision, know-how and energy they saw the opportunity of getting the Gospel going out into a modern complex world in real power.

By now convinced the call to the ministry had truly come from God, Mr. Armstrong was ordained.

A new era, new life

It was under his leadership that a new era of the Church of God was entered, revitalizing the Church, injecting into it new life and vigor by the Spirit of God to get Christ's Gospel — His message — going out with of HAPPINESS, JOY in abundance and plenty, under the living all-powerful and glorified Jesus Christ!

In the summer and autumn of 1933, Mr. Armstrong gave a series of lectures in and around Eugene, Ore., proclaiming the true Gospel of the KINGDOM OF GOD and THE WAY OF LIFE that produces peace, true success and real happiness. The response was spontaneous and beyond expectation. This raised up the parent Church of the present era of God's Church — known today as the WORLDWIDE CHURCH OF GOD. An invitation followed to speak on Radio Station KORE, then Eugene's only radio outlet. Frank Hill, owner, 1934, and publishing The Plain Truth. Feb. 1, soon were absorbing all of Mr. Armstrong's time.

It finally became clear that the Stanberry Church of God had been the remnant of the "Sardis" era of the Church (Revelation 3:1-6) and that the parent Church at Eugene was the start of the "Philadelphia" era (Revelation 3:7-13). This was the era when Christ, living Head of the Church, was opening doors for proclamation of His Gospel.

Phenomenal growth

God now began opening doors for a Spirit-empowered Work to leap forth (Revelation

"The time had come for God's Work to prepare the way for the soon-coming Messiah to supreme power and glory and the wonderful WORLD TOMORROW!"

suggested a weekly half-hour program to give this missing dimension in education, exposure to a wider audience. He, himself, contributed substantially to its cost.

Meanwhile, the Church of God, Seventh Day, headquartered at Stanberry, Mo., had ousted Mr. Dugger from leadership in a political struggle (which never belongs in God's Church) by one vote. Mr. Dugger then teamed with a C. O. Dodd of Salem, W. Va. In an effort to "draw away followers after him" (Acts 20:30), Mr. Dugger announced a new "Bible form of organization" for the Church and now claimed Jerusalem as world headquarters — even though there was not a member there — and Salem as U.S. headquarters.

Those in the newly raised up Church of God at Eugene, Ore., knew that the Dugger "Bible form of organization" was not the biblical form at all. But most of the Oregon Conference brethren felt for it a first — and wanted to go into it. Mr. Armstrong and the Church at Eugene, now growing rapidly, were providentially restrained from joining.

However, they did want to continue fellowship with the Oregon Conference brethren. Mr. Armstrong, who had been "dominated" by the new Dugger organization as one of the 70 leading elders (although there never were anywhere near that number of ministers in it) consented to cooperate with the Salem people, never joining — and never receiving salary or money in any form from them. This cooperation continued until late 1937. But meanwhile, GOD'S WORK, through the Eugene Church, grew until it absorbed all of Mr. Armstrong's time. HE DID NOT EVER LEAVE THAT CHURCH OF THE ONE AT STANBERRY — he had NEVER BEEN A MEMBER OF EITHER.

But the raising up of the Church at Eugene and the start of the radio broadcast Jan. 8, 1938. The Work from this point grew in power and scope at the rate of 30 percent per year over the next 35 years.

The first week in 1934 The World Tomorrow program went on the air. It met with an immediate response, compensating the small power and limited coverage of the station. It was then of the very smallest wattage for commercial broadcasting (100 watts). Gradually the program went on more and more stations. By 1942 the program had gained national coverage in the United States and by 1945 it became a daily program.

It grew until it purchased more wattage of radio time than any program on earth using radio and TV stations worldwide — more than 50 million watts of power weekly reaching an estimated 100 million listeners.

The Plain Truth magazine, monthly developed into one of the finest quality magazines in the world with a circulation of more than three million copies, in five languages. Ambassador College was founded in Pasadena, Calif., in 1947, as the educational arm of the Church — for producing an educated ministry and training many people for administrative personnel.

The Church founded the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation (AICF), through which it carries on many charitable and humanitarian projects in many parts of the world.

In 1968 the living Christ opened a new door to Mr. Armstrong through which to carry Christ's Gospel message into many countries. By invitation, Mr. Armstrong came to have very cordial personal meetings with emperors, kings, presidents, prime ministers and others in high office in Asia, Southeast Asia, Europe, Africa, Central and South America. Since 1968 Mr. Armstrong has visited more than 70 countries around the world and has received special honors from Japan, Israel, Jordan, the Philippines, South Africa, Kenya, Liberia and others.

"The Spirit of God, dwelling in the human body of Jesus, had started the Work of God. After Christ's ascension to heaven, this same Spirit of God energized the collective body — the Church. The Church thus became the 'Body of Christ.'" underground in the main. The Church continued assembling — but more than the regular assembling of members, it had been given a role to proclaim the message to the world in power. And it had not been getting the job done!

That vital power of God's Spirit that had worked dynamically in Christ and in the first century apostles, had scarcely been working in the Church. That Work by the early 20th century, had become virtually dead (Revelation 3:1).

By 1927 in the United States, members continued to assemble regularly in their local congregations scattered over the country. Then in November, 1930, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong had been invited to attend a business meeting being held in a member's home near Jefferson, Ore. This meeting was called to organize Oregon members into a separate Oregon Conference of the Church of God.

Immediately division among the members surfaced. It was probably a majority of the Oregon members who wanted to split off from the Stanberry headquarters and incorporate in order to keep their own tubes in Oregon. They were dissatisfied that the Church was doing virtually nothing to carry out the great commission to the world power to the whole world. Much more than human experience and know-how was required.

Once again God was sending forth and infusing into His Church His Spirit of power.

The time had come for the final message of God for this present world to go with great impact. The time had come for God's Work to prepare the way for the soon-coming Messiah to supreme power and glory and the wonderful WORLD TOMORROW! The time when by the act of God His government will be restored on earth ruling all nations with WORLD GOVERNMENT! It will be a world of PEACE.

AMBASSADOR COLLEGE IS UNIQUE!

By Raymond F. McNeil
 PASADENA There are approximately 1,000 colleges and universities in the United States. Does America, and the world, need Ambassador? What can this unique college offer that other institutions of higher learning do not give to their students?

The founder and chancellor of Ambassador College, Herbert W. Armstrong, answered this question: "I was never called to engage in the college business. But in 1947 the need had become imperative to establish an educational arm of the Church on the college level."

It definitely was not because this world needed another college. There were too many of this world's institutions of higher education already."

But the living God had caused me to realize the serious need for a college to train an educated ministry for His Church and other persons to fill the increasing need for administrative offices.

For this purpose it had to be God's kind of college, utterly unique in the world. His college of theological seminars existed filled this purpose. (The Good News, July 17).

But exactly what kind of a college would God want for the training of those to be used in His Church and His worldwide work?

After much thought and prayer Mr. Armstrong was forced to the conclusion that God did not want him to found a Bible college or some kind of a theological seminar. God wanted the students of His college to receive a liberal arts education, not a narrow, restricted Bible education only. It became clear that God didn't want the kind of college that would produce Bible-speaking freaks. But He wanted to train well educated students who would be taught a wide variety of subjects, which would give them the breadth and depth of knowledge necessary for them to become leaders, both today and tomorrow!

It was clear that the large, assembly line colleges and universities were missing the mark. They were turning out to be institutions of higher learning where God and His way of life were neither recognized nor taught, where large numbers of students lost their identities.

The dilemma of modern education

Mr. Armstrong aptly described the dilemma of modern education. He said:

"Something is criminally wrong in education today."

Ambassador College came on the world scene free from the shackles of materialism and the errors of tradition. Ambassador has dared to recapture the true values, to blaze new trails while retaining all that is sound and that has been proved good in educational experience.

Educational institutions, generally have grown so large that regimented assembly line processes have replaced individualized instruction. The student has lost his identity. Development of personality and initiative is largely sacrificed.

Moral bars have toppled. Staffing needs with crass materialism while moral, spiritual and emotional development is neglected. Produces bodiless, unbalanced education and is criminally dangerous.

There can be no well balanced broadening and worthwhile education where the true values have become obscured from view, where character building is a lost and discarded art and minds are filled with dead knowledge and false materialism.

The development of the man himself, his character, right sense of values, knowledge of the real purpose of life and the laws that govern happiness, peace and abundant well being is neglected. Modern education commits the crime of developing the man, here while failing to develop the man.

At Ambassador College, students find the true values. They learn the real purpose of human life. Life takes on the meaning. Emphasis is upon character building. Students acquire a well rounded, broadening, balanced education. There is not only mental development, but also that of personality, true culture, poetic and emotional maturity.

The Ambassador policy is based upon the recognition that true education is not of the intellect alone but of the whole personality. Not alone of technologies, sciences and arts, but an understanding of the purpose of life, a knowledge of the spiritual laws which govern our lives, our God-relationship and human relationships. Not a memorizing of knowledge alone but a thorough training in self discipline, self expression, cultural and character development. Not book learning only, but broadening travel and experience, not only hearing and learning, but doing.

In other words, concluded Mr. Armstrong, "The curricula are planned to give students a broad, cultural background, a foundation for the most living happily successful, and successful abundance. Hence the emphasis upon character building and spiritual development is aptly stated in the Ambassador motto: Recapture True Values. (Motto of Ambassador College, 1948-67).

These words clearly express the foundational policy, the very purpose, for the establishment of this college.

Ambassador opens its doors

Ambassador College first opened its doors in the fall of 1947. Many trials beset the college from its inception. But under the courageous, uncompromising leadership of its founder, Mr. Armstrong, Ambassador weathered all of these storms.

Speaking of the early years of Ambassador, Mr. Armstrong recently said:

"During the first three years of Ambassador's life I personally fought and bled and died, so to speak, to keep this haven of seclusion and materialism out... to make it truly God's own college." (The Good News, July 3)

From the inception of Ambassador, there were many who opposed the way the college was being run. They didn't want it to be God's way but wanted to introduce the worldly concepts of education into the college. Mr. Armstrong withstood all attacks and continued guiding Ambassador along the path of God's way. God continued to be the center of every class and activity in the college. And Ambassador College not only survived — it thrived!

Too much specialization

In today's educational morass, many are coming to see that modern education is in deep trouble. There is far too much specialization and precious little being taught in the field of general education to equip young students to cope with the serious problems they will soon face in a complicated world.

In America, and in much of today's modern world, academic standards have been lowered, partly due to the pressure of militant students on many campuses (specially during the 1960s) who forced revisions that actually tended to downgrade education.

Richard Berendren, provost of American University in Washington, D.C., recently summed up the dilemma in modern education:

"Academic standards in higher education have been declining in the past few years. It is a national disgrace."

And quite recently, some of the big universities, like Harvard University and the University of California are encouraging students to acquire a broadly based liberal arts education. They are beginning to realize that many students tend to specialize in one narrow field of endeavor and fail to get a liberal arts education. This fact recently led Harvard officials to revise its curriculum so that students will be forced to take more courses in the area of 1) literature and arts, 2) history, 3) social and philosophical analysis, 4) science and mathematics, and 5) foreign languages and culture.

The trouble is not simply that the sciences have displaced the humanities. The humanities as currently taught and studied are as much added to specialized scholarship as are the scientific departments to highly specialized research. The trouble, rather, is that the usually educated generalist, the man with a liberal arts education has become an endangered species. The ever increasing specialization of knowledge in all fields has almost completely displaced the generalist. So stated Mortimer J. Adler, chairman of the board of editors of the Encyclopedia Britannica (News week, Aug. 21).

The open house had a western theme, and participants were encouraged to wear appropriate costumes.

Explorer adventurer John Goddard addressed the Ambassador College faculty and student body at an assembly Dec. 5 in the Ambassador Auditorium.

Mr. Goddard, who has addressed assemblies at all three Ambassador campuses in past years, narrated a tale of his recent trip to the Galapagos Islands and mountain

Mr. Goddard, a resident of La Canada, Calif., stressed the importance of setting and achieving goals and described how he, at age 15, listed 127 goals he wanted to accomplish in life. He has accomplished over 100 of these to date, although he commented that he adds to the list as new activities and adventures come to mind.

During the past semester the Sub-batual Ministers' Club in Pasadena has had several guest speakers at its bi-weekly luncheon meetings. The last speaker was C. Wayne Cole who discussed "What Is a Minister?" At the Nov. 8 meeting Stanley R. Rader was guest speaker, relating some of his personal experiences and discussing characteristics of successful people he has known at many levels of business and society. Raymond McNeil, deputy chancellor of Ambassador College, spoke at the meeting Nov. 22, speaking about his 30 years in the ministry.

Despite heavy fog and snow mountain roads about 15 Ambassador College students spent Dec. 1 through 3 in a rented house at the Lake Arrowhead mountain resort area 40 miles east of Pasadena.

The students are members of the men's Monday Night Live club and the women's Monday Night Live club and were accompanied by sub-batual ministers Steve Smith and Steven Smith and their families.

Highlights of the weekend were walks and drives around the area. Some of some of Herbert W. Armstrong's early telecasts, dances, table games and discussions with the ministers and their wives.

The Ambassador College student body presented The Bing Show a takeoff on TV's Bing Show before a packed house of Pasadena Church members in the Ambassador College Recital Hall Dec. 9.

Masters of ceremonies were students Dave Miller and Paul Williams with the team of Students Greg Albertini and ministers David Austin and Berne S. Shuppert serving as judges for the students' acts.

Two plays were a band called Enthusiast and Business and were placed with a star-studded group. The stars included Pasadena sports writer Steve Smith, club president Center main emphasis is still on getting a good broad-based liberal arts education. Here, only a few courses are reduced to one and helping students earn a living. Most courses, however, are designed to help students learn to live — how to live abundantly, full, happy, productive lives.

At Ambassador, we not only stress the development of the intellect but are equally concerned with developing the personality and character of the student. This is a far more important than many other colleges.

In order to develop a well-rounded, free education, happy student we realize it is necessary for students to have many different types of experiences. Most of the students at Ambassador are a strong team way through every day and one of the student employment is provided by the college.

Also during the college year, various trips are planned for the broadening of the student's life. A number of students annually take trips to Europe, the Middle East or to other parts of the world's further broaden the knowledge of this planet and of its people.

Currently, we are preparing to send a number of Ambassador students to work during the summer of 1979 on an important archaeological site in Kentucky.

campus in America. With beautiful landscaped grounds and an artistic blend of newly designed and architecturally pleasing college buildings (Ambassador Auditorium, the Student Center, Ambassador Hall, the Administration Building) and the other two architecturally pleasing dormitory buildings, which once served as stately homes for multi-millionaires, Ambassador students are truly privileged to work and study in the most beautiful and uplifting environment to be found on any campus in the world.

The world needs Ambassador. Why does the world need Ambassador College?

Simply because Ambassador is the only place on earth where God's Word can show demonstrational proof of the artistic concept of civilization as taught faithfully. Here the Word of God is truly the foundation of every class, every activity of everything. This does not mean that students are religious or speak in a sanctimonious manner. They do not try to be religious, but they do try to live a truly God-like way.

Included over the door of the beautiful Ambassador Hall (former home of multimillionaire, Helen C. Merritt) are these words: "The Word of God is the Foundation of Human Order."

As many of this world's institutions of higher learning, little culture is being taught and nothing about God's way. But at Ambassador, lectures are given concerning proper citizenship and culture. We want to make sure that all graduates of Ambassador are truly cultured individuals.

When students are given intensive personality and character training (along with proper mind development) they are head and shoulders above the average graduate. When they are taught to be honest, moral, temperate, to work hard and be diligent in everything they do, when they are taught to love and respect not only God but their fellowman, then they are bound to be successful citizens of this planet.

Because of the fine example of many graduates of Ambassador College, their employers have often said that they will hire as many graduates of Ambassador as they can get.

Ambassador College is already well on its way. We have already recognized the true values which are generally overlooked by the institutions of higher learning of this world.

NEWS OF PEOPLE, PLACES & EVENTS IN THE WORLDWIDE CHURCH OF GOD

First native Nigerian ordained

PASADENA — United States area coordinators will be traveling to Pasadena some days before the ministerial conference scheduled for Jan. 15 to 18, according to C. Wayne Cole, director of Church Administration.

The pre-conference planning meetings, which will include discussions on manpower, will be held Jan. 10 to 12.

PASADENA — A fire in an office in the Hall of Administration caused the building to be evacuated the morning of Dec. 7.

Because of unusually cold weather, employees had moved a portable heater into the office, and its extension cord apparently overheated, igniting wiring, draperies and credenza.

Richard Sedlitz, Correspondence Course director, was visiting the office about the time the fire was discovered and managed to quench the blaze before flames arrived. The building was evacuated as a precaution. The building's insurer presented Mr. Sedlitz with a $100 check Dec. 14 for his quick action, which prevented potentially major damage to the office and building.

PASADENA — A gala benefit performance of The Bob Hope Show television special (NBC) with guest stars Debbie Boone, Pat Boone and Sammy Davis Jr. will take place in Ambassador Auditorium Jan. 4. The performance is sponsored by Dolores Hope with Kathryn Crosby and the Ambassador Foundation for the benefit of the Bing Crosby Youth Fund.

This is the fourth network television special to originate in Ambassador Auditorium. The first, in 1977, was Bing. Subsequent shows were Gene Kelly — An American in Pasadena, and last August, Ford Motor Co.'s 75th anniversary show.

On Feb. 1, the Pearl Bailey show will be taped at Ambassador.

PASADENA — The year of 1978 was "a period of accomplishment and achievement," according to Richard Rice, director of the Work's Mail Processing Center here.

According to figures from his department, from January to November 7.6 million Plain Truth magazines were mailed and an additional nine million were distributed through newsstands in the United States. Also 1.1 million copies of The Good News, nine million letters, 730,000 Correspondence Course lessons and four million other pieces of literature were mailed out to requesters and subscribers.

PASADENA — Ministerial Services has released the name of the following ministers ordained as local church elders, Joseph E. Pope of Columbus, Ga.

VICTORIA ISLAND, Nigeria — At the Feast of Tabernacles here, Lateef Edalere was ordained as a local elder in the ministry of Jesus Christ. He is the first black African in the history of God's Work to be ordained to the ministry.

The ordination was conducted by Harold Jackson, director of the Work in that area of Africa, and Elbert Atlas, a visiting area coordinator from the United States.

Mr. Edalere is a 39-year-old native Nigerian who left home in 1962 to pursue an education in Great Britain. He successfully completed his college training, majoring in management, accounting and computer systems analysis. He worked in these fields while in college.

When he left Britain in 1974 for the purpose of serving as chief accountant in the Nigerian office of an internationally known British firm, he was accounting systems manager for four large firms and was serving 21 other companies in computer services.

Mr. Edalere has been a member of God's Church since 1974. He was ordained as a deacon in 1975 and was hired by the Church in 1976. His responsibilities included handling mail and business matters. His linguistic ability (he speaks at least six languages), business acumen and knowledge of his country and its customs have been of immense help to Mr. Jackson in establishing and maintaining the church in Nigeria.

Mr. Edalere and his wife Yvonne, a native of Jamaica, have been married for 12 years. They have two daughters, Athena, 11, and Allison, 8, and twin sons, Paul and Peter, 7.

FIRST ELDER — Lateef Edalere, shown here with his wife and four children, is the first black African to be ordained into the ministry in the modern history of the Church. (Photo by Elbert Atlas)

Mrs. Edalere is trained in commercial secretarial science and worked for the BBC radio and TV for more than seven years.

Two deacons were also ordained at the same services. They were Eliah Chukwudi (pronounced Chukwudiel) of Lagos, Nigeria, church and Lazarus Ekwellem (pronounced Ekwel) a leper of the eastern congregation of Oguwa, Nigeria, in Imo state.

Forum helps eliminate rumors — We wish to thank you very much for a very informative Forum section of The Good News. Your thoughtfulness in opening up this section is very commendable indeed. There was a time when we did not know what was happening in the Church but were afraid to ask, lest we be branded as noisy. And others were reluctant to tell what they knew, lest they be accused of rumormongering. Now, your very timely Forum has totally eliminated the system of getting news from headquarters through grapevines and whispers. Your sincerity, candor and humility are very evident in all your and outgoing interviews and your answers.

Paul B. Salihah

We appreciate the new changes in The Good News and we like the Forum by Mr. Stan Rader very much. We look forward to The Good News each month about the Forum track.

Correction

In our Dec. 4 issue, The Good News released a list of dates when Alcoholism Awareness Seminars would be conducted in a number of cities by the Work's Human Potential Center.

According to Dale Hampton, director of the alcoholism section of the Human Potential Center, the list printed is a totally inaccurate and subject to change.

Seminars meet alcohol challenge

NEW YORK — An Alcoholism Awareness Seminar for the deaf was called a landmark for the Work's Human Potential Outreach Program by Dale Hampton, director of the alcoholism section of the Human Potential Center in Pasadena.

Mary Moshle, a New York Worldwide Church of God member, interpreted the entire seminar, which included the movie If You Left Me, the story of a family affected by alcoholism.

The program was presented Nov. 26 in the St. Jean of the Baptist Auditorium here and was cosponsored by the Livingston School of the Deaf. Speakers in addition to Mr. Hampton included Bill Brunson, director of child care at Livingston School of the Deaf, a representative of Alcoholics Anonymous World Service and a member of Al Anon.

The seminar was videotaped with plans to produce a 16-mm film for distribution to deaf community members around the world.

"This is the first seminar presented to the deaf, but it is hoped that it will open the door and provide the foundation so that the entire Human Potential seminar series can be presented to the deaf community," said Mr. Hampton.

Alcoholism seminar — While in the area, Mr. Hampton conducted an Alcoholism Awareness Seminar following Sabbath services on the New York Church on Dec. 2.

Some 250 people, half of whom were members, half nonmembers, attended the seminar held in the New York City City Club at Century building. Mr. Hampton and others talked about the symptoms of alcoholism, teenage alcoholism, how to help a loved one who drinks too much and community resources available to assist in the various aspects of alcoholism. Dr. Ross Fishman, director of educational training at the New York affiliate of the National Council on Alcoholism, also spoke.

A panel of professionals on youth and adult drinking problems.

Alcoholism is a family affair, said Mr. Hampton. His advice to those attending the seminar was to find out what they can do to help the person they love who drinks too much. "Because you care, become aware," he said.

Workshop for industry — New York area coordinator Elbert Atlas invited Mr. Hampton to address some 40 ministers and their wives here Dec. 3. Mr. Hampton will be conducting a work shop for the ministers on how to deal with the problem of alcoholism in their local churches.

The problem of alcoholism is growing, unchallenged, said Mr. Hampton, who sees the threat of the use and other seminars as meeting that challenge.

CHALLENGE OF ALCOHOLISM — Dale Hampton, left, holds a seminar on the problem of alcoholism in New York Dec. 2. Just days earlier he held a similar seminar in New York but this time for the deaf.
